

Things to remember about suffering and thanksgiving

If you never experience the agony of battle, the loneliness of prison, the pain of torture and the pang of starvation then you are better off than 500 million people in this world.

If you have food in your fridge, clothes on your back, a roof over your head and a place to sleep then you are richer than 75% of this world.

If you can attend a church meeting without the fear of harassment, arrest, torture, or death then you are better off than three billion people in this world.

If you have money in the bank, in your wallet and spare change in a dish on your dresser, you're in the top 8% of the world's wealthy.

If you wake up with good or even poor health then you will be better off than the 6 million people who will die this week

Makes you think. Is suffering part of God's will?...His plan?
